Young talent time in Lismore

ARE you a young songwriter who dreams of taking to the stage?

The Lismore Young Songwriters Competition is now open for applications.

The Young Songwriters Awards is an opportunity for youth living between Tweed Heads and Grafton to showcase their songwriting and performance talents. Finalists will perform at the awards night to be held during Youth Week in April.

If you are aged 12-25 years and love writing original songs, you can enter the Young Songwriter competition before March 26 to be in the running for great prizes and opportunities.

Entry is free and you can enter one song under each of the four genres: pop, urban/ electronic, indie/rock and punk/metal.

To enter the competition submit your song in MP3 format with lyrics attached as a Word document, plus a bio and artist photo, to lismoresongcomp@gmail.com

For more information go to nrsdc.org.au and look for info on the competition.

The Lismore Young Songwriters Competition is a partnership between Social Futures and Headspace.
