

Building Inclusive Workplaces:

why access and inclusion is good business

Are you tapping into the full potential of your workforce?

We've been there, done that. Our team of inclusion experts draw on our own personal experience of disability to deliver engaging, insightful presentations to your team, business group or network.

Learn simple and cost-effective ways to build access and inclusion in your workplace, opening up new recruitment possibilities, skills and customers.

We offer insights and resources based on the latest evidence, best-practice and first-hand knowledge of how diverse workplaces thrive.

Social Futures works to achieve positive social change. We know your local community - we live and work here too.

Call us today on 1800 522 679 to talk about delivering this free program in your workplace, group or network.

socialfutures.org.au

Delivering the NDIS in your community