Disability Inclusion in Culture

A SCHOOL PROGRAM

Milkiri (ant dance) is a Northern NSW school program to help students understand disability inclusion from an Aboriginal Cultural perspective.

EXPLORING DISABILITY INCLUSION

Be guided through an interactive workshop by Ngemba man and storyteller Richard Clarke from Social Futures. Richard uses stories and activities to introduce different cultural artifacts, symbols and principles related to inclusion.

FROM AN ABORIGINAL CULTURAL PERSPECTIVE

Learn how all community members have valuable roles in their family, kinship and community, regardless of disability or difference. Everyone takes care of each other. We are all connected to Country in mind, body and spirit.

We acknowledge the Traditional Custodians of the land where we live and work and their continuing connection to land, water, sea and community. We pay respects to Australia's First Peoples, to their unique and diverse cultures, and to Elders past, present and future.

Inclusion is about the actions we take every day. We welcome, support, and celebrate diversity.
